Description :

PDF-ba6f0 | China is home to half of the world's large dams and adds dozens more each year. The benefits are considerable: dams deliver hydropower, provide reliable irrigation water, protect people and farmland against flooding, and produce hydroelectricity in a nation with a seemingly insatiable appetite for energy. As hydropower responds to a larger share of energy demand, dams may also help to reduce the ... Dams and Development in China: The Moral Economy of Water and Power (Contemporary Asia in the World)
