Description :

PDF-72cb6 | Hemmed in by "women's work" much less than has been thought, women in the late 1800s and early 1900s were the primary entrepreneurs in the millinery and dressmaking trades. The Female Economy explores that lost world of women's dominance, showing how independent, often ambitious businesswomen and the sometimes imperious consumers they served gradually vanished from the scene as custom production g... The Female Economy: The Millinery and Dressmaking Trades, 1860-1930 (Women in American History)
