Description :

PDF-f2239 | A Land Made from Water chronicles how the appropriation and development of water and riparian resources in Colorado changed the face of the Front Range—an area that was once a desert and is now an irrigated oasis suitable for the habitation and support of millions of people. This comprehensive history of human intervention in the Boulder Creek and Lefthand Creek valleys explores the complex inte... A Land Made from Water: Appropriation and the Evolution of Colorado's Landscape, Ditches, and Water Institutions
