Description :

PDF-7c065 | New Jersey has long been a breeding ground for political corruption, and most of it is perfectly legal. Public officials accept favors from lobbyists, give paid positions to relatives, and rig the electoral process to favor their cronies in a system where campaign money is used to buy government results. Such unethical behavior is known as “soft corruption,” and former New Jersey legislator Wi... Soft Corruption: How Unethical Conduct Undermines Good Government and What To Do About It (Rivergate Regionals Collection)
